Will DeGrauw joins the Hinds' Feet Farm Staff

Huntersville, N.C. – On April 2, Will DeGrauw joined the staff of Hinds Feet Farm. Will, a former resident of Exeter NH, will be taking on the daunting task of starting and running the Hinds' Feet Farm Day Program. Before coming to the farm, Will worked as the Program Director of Stepping Stones, an innovative, post-rehabilitative, community based day program for persons living with a brain injury based in Portsmouth, NH.

For the past 15 years, Will has specialized in community-based, brain injury rehabilitation, specifically in the areas of independent living, neuropsychological/cognitive rehabilitation, vision therapy, behavior management, psychological rehabilitation, vocational counseling, admissions/marketing, and administration. Will also served as an adjunct faculty at the University of New Hampshire's Department of Occupational Therapy, Durham, New Hampshire and the Granite State College, Rochester, New Hampshire where he taught Career Development and Life Planning. Will received his associate's degree from Nassau Community College, Garden City, New York, his bachelor's degree in Psychology and master's degree in Rehabilitation Counseling from the University of Scranton, Scranton, Pennsylvania. Professionally, Will is a Certified Rehabilitation Counselor (CRC) and Certified Case Manager (CCM).

We are extremely please to have Will on board!

About Hinds Feet Farm

Hinds' Feet Farm is dedicated to serving persons living with brain injury. Our mission is to maximize the post injury potential of persons living with brain injury with integrated, unique and holistic programs; allowing persons living with brain injury to pursue meaningful activities while developing a sense of belonging at home and in the surrounding communities. We will accomplish this mission with several unique, person-centered, post-rehabilitation, community-based programs.

Hinds Feet Farm is a 501-(c)3 charitable organization located in Huntersville, NC. For more information on the Farm and their exciting programs, visit their website at www.hindsfeetfarm.org or contact Marty Foil, Executive Director, at (704) 992-1424.
